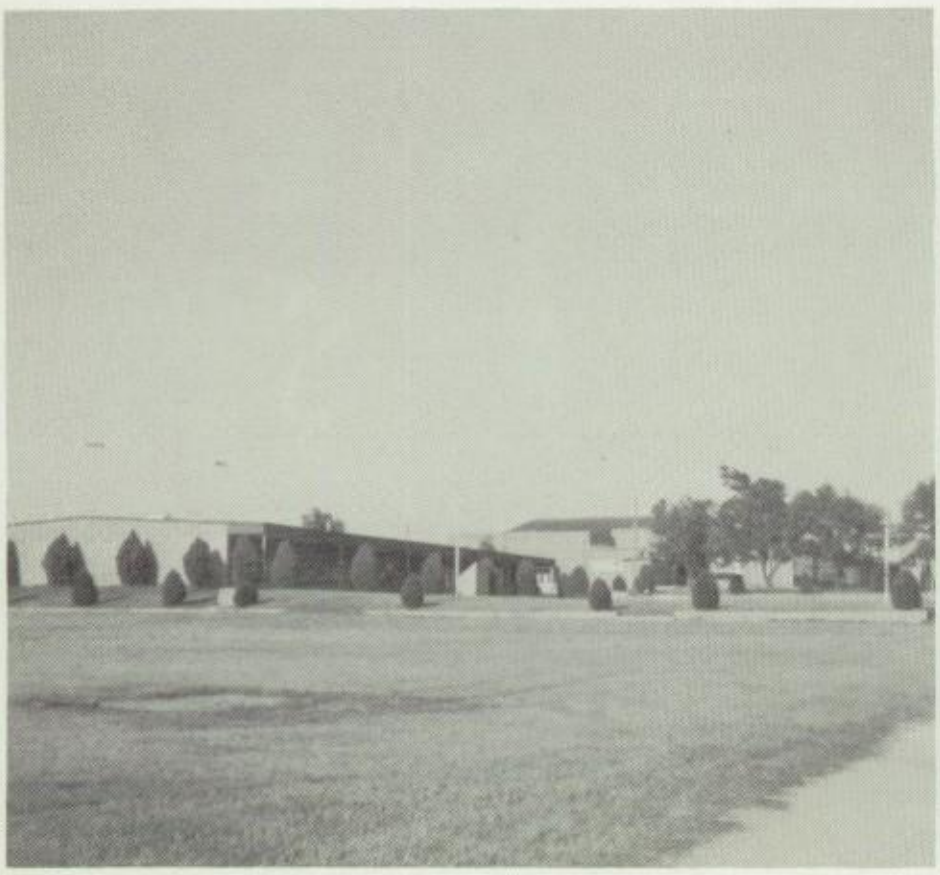
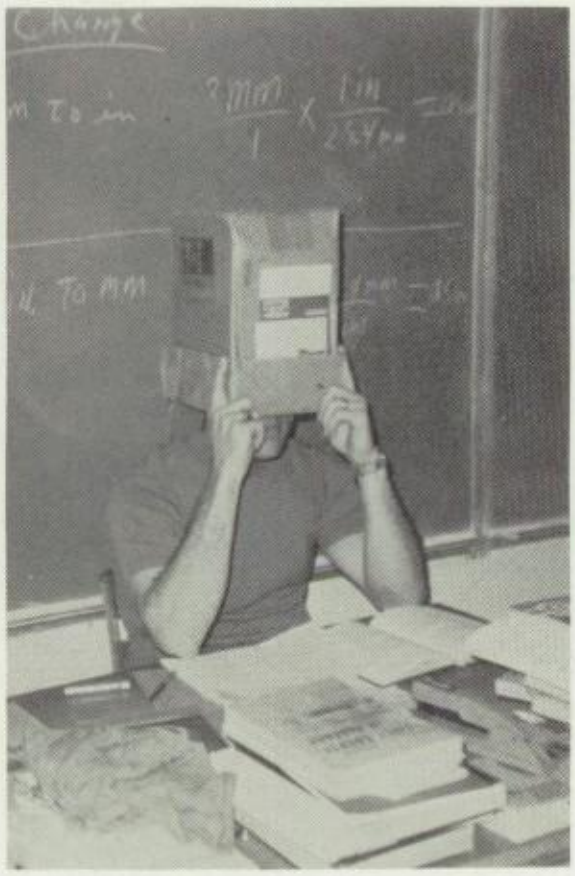
To the communities of Colony and Corn, for their sacrifices, encouragement and support; to the members of the board of education, who have worked so tirelessly for the success of Washita Heights; to the patrons for their cooperation; and to the administration, faculty and staff for keeping the "wheels rolling"; we, the staff of the 1969 Chieftain, dedicate our first yearbook.



Leadership, guidance, understanding, respect, loyalty . . . . these were provided by our . . . .

ADMINISTRATION,



FACULTY and STAFF

Adrain Crabb
Superintendent

Our school is very fortunate and proud to have Mr. Adrain Crabb as superintendent. He is well-qualified, as his past offices of important civic and educational positions show. He was born in Texas, attended high school in Oklahoma and college in Oklahoma and Colorado.

Doyle Ward
Jr. High and High School Principal

Doyle Ward, who was born in Cloud Chief and reared in the Colony community, served as junior high and high school principal during the 1968-69 school year. In addition, he taught economics and junior high English.

Gene Flaming
Grade School Principal

Serving as elementary principal is Gene Flaming. He was born and reared in the Corn community. In addition to being elementary principal, he is in charge of the elementary physical education program.

Washita Heights Public School was very proud of its 1968-69 Board of Education. The board helped the school both academically and in extra-curricular activities. The members of the board were (l. to r.) Jack McLemore, president; Erwin Duerksen, clerk; Richard Humbargar, member; Marvin Johnson, member; and Loy Luekenga, member.

Farewell is read

Eagles are burned in effigy

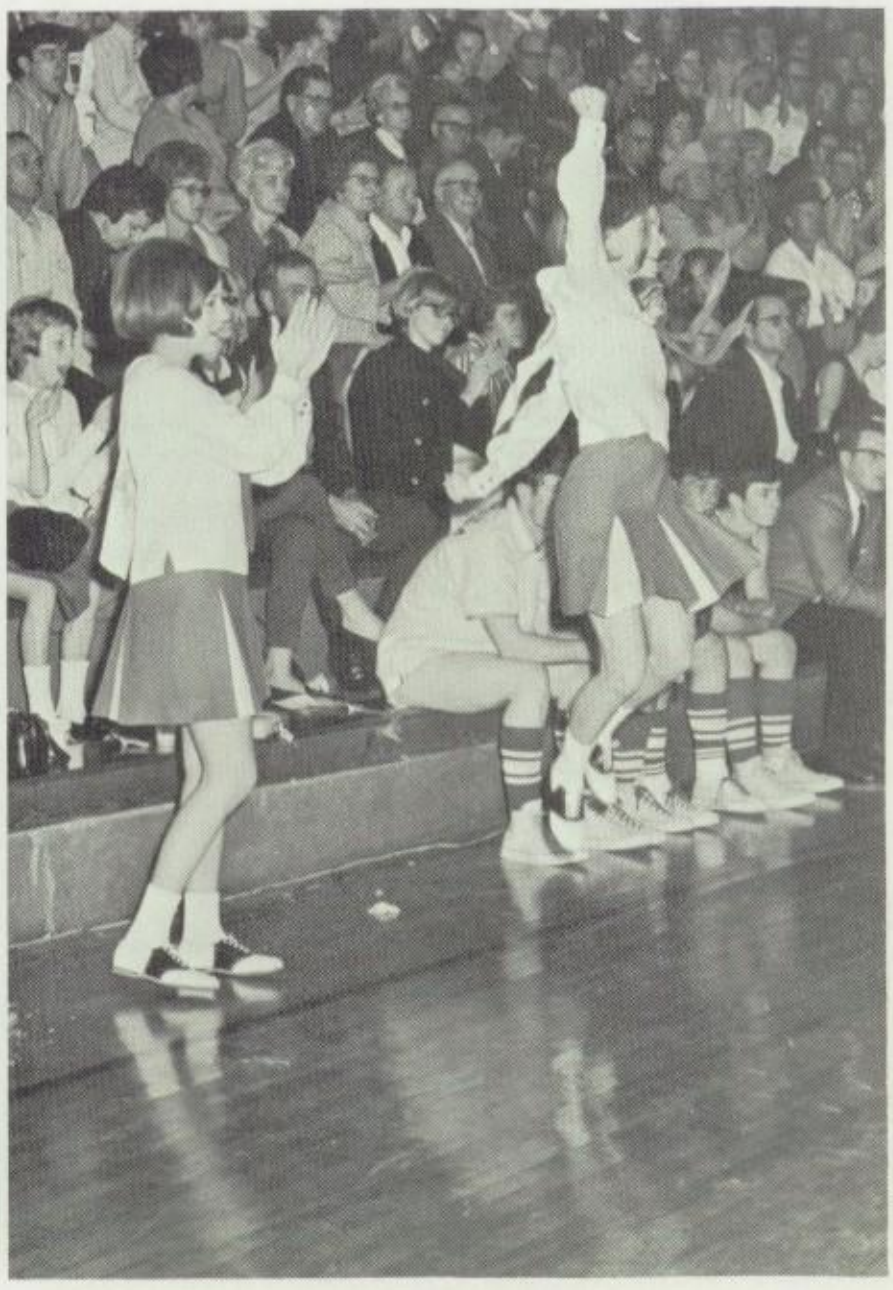
February 7, 1969, Homecoming events were held at Washita Heights. This was our first "Homecoming" and was unusual in that we had no alumni. The events were sponsored by the Student Council, for the purpose of establishing a tradition. Both Corn and Colony communities took part along with the elementary and high school students. Each class and club was responsible for a float and in the early afternoon, a homecoming parade was held. Floats representing American Legion, Boy Scouts, Extension Homemaker's Clubs, Homecoming Queen candidates, and the Yearbook Queen also entered in the parade. The parade started at the high school and proceeded through the downtown area, ending once again at the high school.

At 6:30 the preceding evening a bonfire was held in the park at Colony to promote school spirit. The cheerleaders led in a number of cheers and at the climax of the evening, a dummy representing Eakly Eagles was burned in effigy as a farewell was read.

Friday evening the Chiefs met Eakly in the Homecoming game. The girls played first and proudly stormed to victory and won their conference. After the girls' contest, the boys burst through the "Chiefs" banner to open a thrilling game. Half-time score saw the Chiefs in the lead by a narrow margin; and in spite of the climactic half-time coronation ceremony, the Chiefs downed the Eagles 55 to 47.

Chiefs burst through for victory

Cheerleaders portray school spirit



On Friday, February 7, 1969, during the halftime of the boys' ballgame with the Eakly Eagles, the coronation of the Homecoming Queen was held.

The candidates for Homecoming Queen were Sue Crabb, Melinda Dalke, and Rhonda Luekenga. Melinda Dalke and her escort, Jerry Hiebert, entered the gymnasium first followed by Rhonda Luekenga and Sue Crabb with their escorts, Steve Kliewer and Troy Thiessen

A slip of paper with the name of the Queen was handed to the escort Steve Kliewer, who then revealed to the public the identity of the queen by placing the crown on her head and presenting her with a kiss and a bouquet of long-stemmed red roses. Each attendant received a single red rose. The escorts then assisted the queen and her attendants to their thrones and once again the homecoming games resumed. Half-time events for the first WH homecoming had ended.

The queen and her attendants remained on the stage for the conclusion of the game and watched the Chiefs gloriously defeat their opponents.

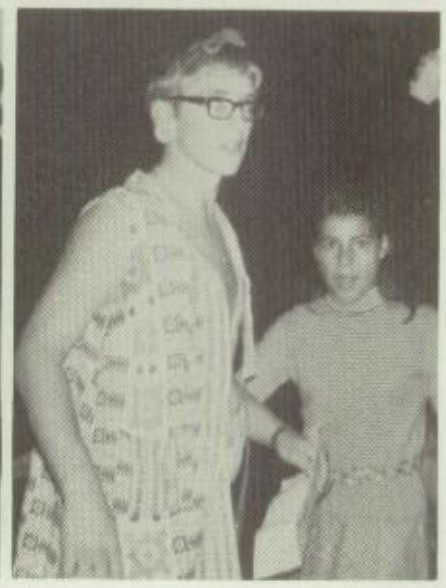
STUDENT COUNCIL

The council consists of four officers elected by the student body and two representatives from each class. They strive to make life at WHHS a little more enjoyable by providing such things as coat racks and a pop machine and sponsoring the National Assemblies held once each month. The Halloween party and Groady Day, which the Stu-Co sponsored, gave faculty and students alike a chance to do their own thing, at least concerning their manner of dress. The Student Council has worked hard to being a tradition by which future councils may add to with dignity.

Serving the Student Council as officers are D. Helvey, treasurer; D. Nickels, vice president; J. Hiebert, president; and T. Bond, secretary.

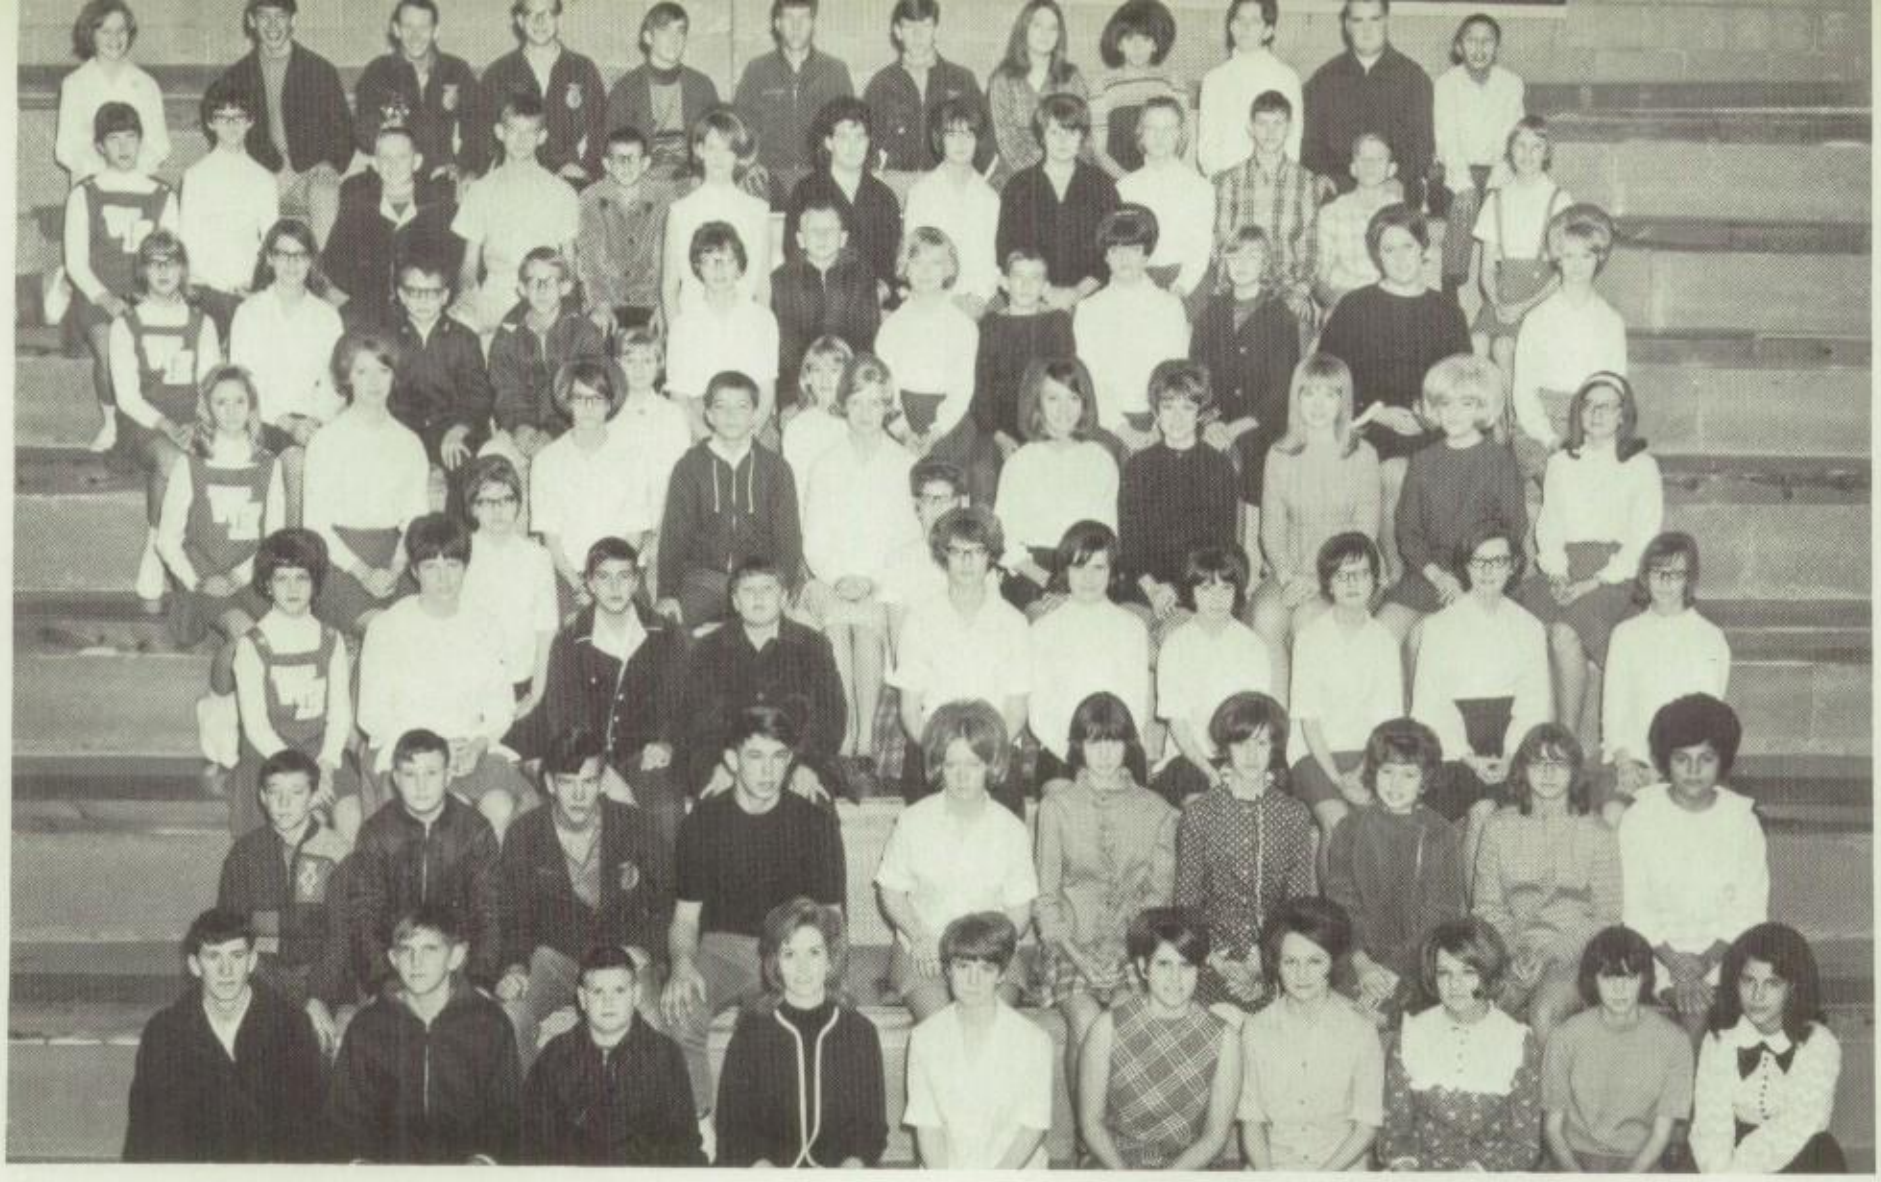


The second semester play was a mystery entitled "Death on the Slopes." It was an exciting play with a different setting, high in the moutains of the ski country. A battle is fought between two famous fashion designers, private detectives, and strong, ambitious women.

DRAMA

The first semester play was entitled "Four Frightened Sisters." The play was centered around the Marshall sisters. It takes place on the eve of Kathy Marshall's betrothal. A dark shadow of fear hovered over them, a fear of the curse that unfailingly struck on the eve of a betrothal.

The dramatics class is composed of C. Vogt, Mr. Tom Stephens, sponsor; E. Vogt, D. Halsey, and C. Vogt.

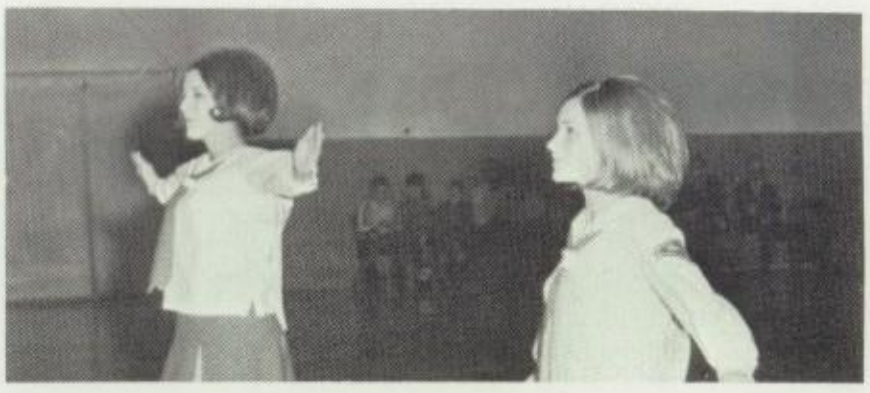


PEP CLUB

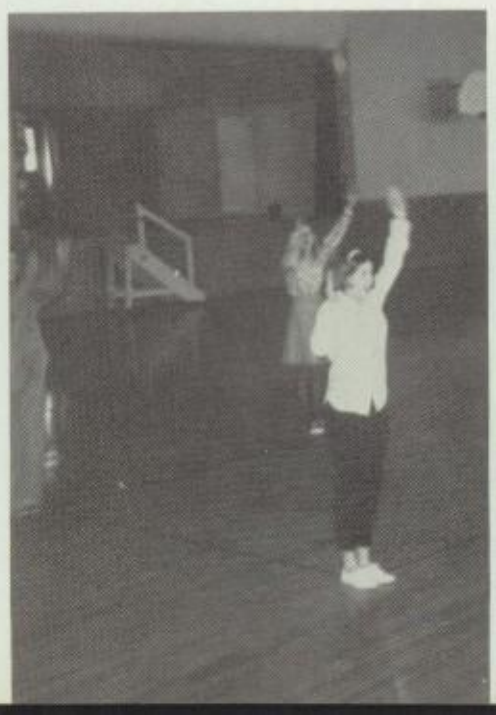
Senior High Cheerleaders: Debbie H., Melinda D., Sue C., Susan B., Edie V., Jackie H.

Junior High Cheerleaders: Debbie H., Marlene R., Debbie K., Jacque C.

Spirit, determination, and drive were the behind the scene forces which made the '69 Cheerleaders great. Leading the Pep Club, they set the gym vibrating with the rhythm of cheers that kept the spirit throughout the basketball season. Other activities such as pep assemblies, the bonfire before homecoming, and homecoming itself kept all members of the pep club active and alert. Assistance provided by sponsors, Mrs. Kathy Weston and Mrs. Marolyn Taggart, added to the enthusiasm created by the cheerleaders.



Eighth Grade Cheerleaders: Rebecca M., Vickie N., Diane K., and Roberta B.



The girls chorus was composed of both junior and senior high girls. They received a rating of excellent at the district contest. Butch Phelps was pianist for the group.

The Washita Heights music department, under the direction of Mrs. Kathy Weston, was kept busy with various events throughout the year. In the fall, both junior and senior high choruses went to festivals. Two Christmas programs were presented. One was by the grade school, the other by the junior and senior high chorus groups.

The district music contest came in March at Altus. A spring concert on April 29 had "patriotism" for its theme.

The junior high girls sextet received a rating of superior at district contest.

The junior high girls chorus received a rating of superior at district contest. Florence Leppke was their pianist.

The junior high boys chorus was accompained by Florence Leppke. They received a rating of good at district contest.

CHIEFTAIN STAFF

Dear Fellow Students,

We would like to thank each one of you for making this first 1969 Chieftain possible by creating memories throughout the past year. We also would like to thank Mrs. Crowder for guidance and direction in compiling the Chieftain.

May this book stand as a reminder of the great school we have at Washita Heights.

Sincerely,
The Chieftain Staff

FHA

The Future Homemakers of America chapter, sponsored by Mrs. Janet Moseley, worked hard this past year striving to achieve the intangible goals set up by the national organization. A variety of meetings were held each month featuring films, skits, and guest speakers. These emphasized a national project of each month. Since FHA is an organization which strives to better the individual by helping others, the Washita Heights Chapter engaged in several outside projects. During the month of December, the members combined fun and good will by decorating the school doors for Christmas and having a pot luck supper. With a flurry of activity in February, FHA'ers made Valentines for the people at the Home for the Aged. They also decorated a car for the homecoming parade. National FHA Week in March involved the members in numerous projects such as attending church together, wearing badges, and FHA colors. Frontier Day and Mr. Irresistible Day brought an added highlight to the week. Throughout the week, each member left notes and small presents for their "Little Sisters" in the eighth grade. "Just for us" was an April project, a slumber party. To finish the year, FHA'ers joined with FFA members in a hayride and weiner roast at Ghost Mound.

FFA

The Future Farmers of America chapter, sponsored by Mr. Max Boothe, has worked hard this past year and achieved a lot for the chapter. They attended two local fairs, two local fat stock shows, the Tulsa State Fair, and the Oklahoma City Livestock Show. Chapter members have also been active in shop work, building trailers, gates, feeders, and many other projects.

Five members and Mr. Boothe attended the State FFA Convention in Stillwater late in April, where one member, Wayne Smith, received the State Farmer Award.

4-H CLUBS

The newly organized Senior 4-H Club is a very ambitious group. The club has received many feathers for their cap, one of which was a tie for first place in the Model Meeting Contest. They sponsored a chili supper to finance 4-H projects throughout the year.

The Junior 4-H Club sponsored a weekly candy store held during noon hour every Friday. The money earned by this project was used to buy suit tops for the grade school basketball teams and paid for a field trip taken by the junior 4-H members.

Junior 4-H Club officers are T. Vogt, president; M. Brummett, vice-president; P. Barnes, secretary; D. Veal, reporter; K. Slatton, and B. Schmidt, game leaders; C. Funk, pianist; and Mrs. Wanda Price, sponsor.

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND

NO MAN IS AN ISLAND

by Joan Whitney and
Alex Kramer

No man is an island;
No man stands alone;

Each man's joy is a joy to me,
Each man's grief is my own.

We need one another,
So I will defend . . .

Each man as my brother,
Each man as my friend.

I saw the people gather,
I heard the music start;

The song that they were singing
Is ringing in my heart.

No man is an island,
No man stands alone;

Each man's joy is a joy to me,
Each man's grief is my own.

We need one another
So I will defend . . .

Each man as my brother,
Each man as my friend.

No man is an island,
No man stands alone.
